CJ V59 Capstone Project in Forensic Science 2 Units

In-Class Hours: 105 laboratory

Prerequisites: CJ V01; CJ V35 OR ANTH V35; CJ V35L OR ANTH V35L; CJ V04; CJ V06

This course provides crime scene processing and evidence collection and analysis experience by integrating the knowledge gained in previous coursework related to the forensic sciences. Utilizing a complex mock crime scene, this course is designed to simulate a "Competency Test," which is a requirement at the culmination of any training program at an accredited forensic laboratory. The final product of the competency test will be structured as a student portfolio, which has the potential of being presented when applying for employment in the field crime scene investigation and/or forensic lab disciplines. An internship with a local law enforcement agency or forensic laboratory may be completed in lieu of this capstone project.
